AN ENGLISH DECISION IN FAVOR OF AN AMERICAN TRADE-MARK.

LONDON, ENGLAND, Aug. 26, 1886.

(Special by cable)—In the chancery
division of the high court of Justice,

London, Vice-Chancellor Bacon has given his decision in favor of The Charles A. Vogeler Company, of Baltimore, Maryland, in the action

brought by that house against H.

Churchill & Co., of Brisbane, Queensland. The case which has been in progress here since September, 1884, grew out of an attempt of Churchill & Company to register a trade-mark containing the words St.

Patricks Oil in connection with a medical preparation. This was promptly opposed by the Vogeler Company, who while admitting that the term and designs which were sought to be registered in the well-known

St. Jacobs Oil trade marks, contend-however, that sufficient similarity existed between the term St. Patricks applied by Churchill & Co., and St.

Jacobs as used by the Vogeler Co.,
to cause confusion in the minds of the public and lead to purchases being deceived.—In support of this position

they submitted an overwhelming

amount of evidence from English,

MOTHER THYER
Are lovely maidens all forlorn,
Grief-stricken, broken-hearted,
Bent over their dead, gone
To see them laid to rest?
Oh, no, they're happier, gadder far
At home, in school, or cloister,
Because next month we'll have an E.
And bring the toghsome oyster.

A THEATRICAL Ditty.
He went out to star
On a gay Pullman car.
But when he came back
He walked on the track.

SEPTEMBER COMES.

And now the hunter takes his gun
The fields to ramble over,
From morn to night to set of sun,
In each of which he's a master,
A gloomy, disappointed wight,
A hand-angled hand carressing,
Returns he homeward in the night,
With several fingers missing.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Town Notes.

The thermometer registered 60 degrees on Wednesday morning.

The sun rises to-morrow (Friday) at 6:25 and sets at 6:39; moon sets at 5:59.

We are pleased to hear rumors of several new houses to be built in Middletown in the near future.

The Methodist Church of this place will be closed on Sunday. There will be Sunday-school as usual.

The usual monthly service at Armstrong Chapel will be postponed until next Sunday week, Sept. 12.

Middletown is lighted with electric lights, and has two candidates for Governor; it also has two excellent newspapers—Delawarean.

Two waiters had a fight at the National Hotel Monday afternoon. Officer Craddock assisted them to the "cooler" where they remained over night.

Some of the trees on North Broad street have been cut down. The caterpillars, of which there seems to be no end, were the cause of it.

A. C. Yates & Co. print their fall and winter catalogues. The new cut is very attractive ones but not more attractive than their clothing and prices.

When a rainy day comes the peach blisks are obliged to lay off from work and then they fit in the time of fighting. Officer Craddock has his hands full of late.

The Cornet Band have ordered their wagon, to be built by Horn Bros., of Wilmington. The new vehicle will cost $200 and is to be completed by the 10th inst.

"Show us a town," truthfully remarks an exchange, "where all the merchants patronize their local paper, and we will show you one where a peddler would stand a poor chance."

The Middletown public schools will open on Monday. Mrs. Wright, and not Mr. Wright, as has been stated, will not be the teacher in the new school until two or three weeks later. Miss Jessie Wright will take her place.

H. L. Arthur put in a new twenty horse-power boiler in his cannery this week and has a large force busily engaged in putting up peaches and tomatoes. Between the cannery and evaporators there are no idle hands in this community.

Mr. B. F. Lippincott, florist of this place is improving his farm house in the way of a new roof and glass fixtures. This will be a great improvement over the former one as all of the frame work was old and decayed, and could not have possibly stood much longer.

The melancholy days have come,

The poet wouldn't have thought the days melancholy if he hadn't been illious; and he wouldn't have been illious if he had taken Kennedy's Chilli Breaker.

Bowby Bros. & Co., of Montreal Canada; B. W. Rose, Syracuse, N. Y.; Potter & Williams, Buffalo, N. Y.; A. D. Gail, Buffalo, N. Y. and Sherman, of Bridgeport Conn. are the principle peach buyers at Middletown station this season.

Preparatory lecture to the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be delivered in Forest Presbyterian Church on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The sacrament will be administered on Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Alexander.

After having surveyed the land and carefully measured it, when Mr. J. T. Shallowe reports the total on part of his land was thirty-five and one-fourth bushels per acre. Where this was grown we used the Diamond State Solsite Bone.

The rain passed over the land, the distinct rattlings and shakings of an earthquake were heard by a number of our residents on Tuesday evening. A number of clocks were stopped in this vicinity.

Twenty persons in the Cecil county jail await the action of the grand jury for coming term of the Circuit Court for that county, four of whom are charged with capital offenses. The term begins September 20th, and promises to be a long one.

Services at St. Anne's Church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The Rev. J. Bees will continue his "Sunday morning meditations on Jesus at Jacob's Well with the Woman of Samaria." And in the evening will preach an "Apostle Assurance." The public are cordially invited and welcomed.

Farmers will certainly find a valuable remedy for Hog Cholera in Bragdon's special for that disease. It has been tested in many severe cases and invariably proves a cure. No farmer can afford to be without it as it is also valuable in diseases among poultry.

A small Boston girl having been told that a clasp of the shell she had just heard was "God speaking," is reported by the Courier to have answered: "I don't see he must be mad den, for he spoke more as loud as pa w'en he found his collar button in de biscuit yesterday."

J. B. Foard sold and shipped six car loads of peaches to Waterford, Ontario, Canada, during the past week.

Unclaimed letters in Middletown postoffice, August 28: Miss Lydia Founain, Solomon P. Herd, Miss Fanny Perkins.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Frances Reynolds, of Middletown, to Mr. Alexander Miller Brown, of Dover, on Tuesday, September 7th.

Mr. George W. Stephens is making some very fine bricks at his yards near Middletown, and now has ready for sale a large quantity of several different grades.

Miss Addie Hazzard will return to Middletown and resume the teaching of music about September 15th. Miss Hazzard needs no introduction to Middletown people and we bespeak for her liberal patronage.

James Munson, a tramp, was arrested on Tuesday for fighting and injuring another tramp. He was released by Officer Craddock the next day, after paying fine and costs, as the one injured would not appear against him.

Oh, yes, Delaware peaches are very late, very late this year. In fact, it may be said that Delaware peaches have got left.

Chestertown Transcript. No, not altogether. Come to Middletown and see the number we are shipping and you will change your mind very much.

September evenings are very tempting for strolls in the country after dusk and for sitting outdoors. But it is rainy. Don't linger along river banks or in low lying meadows or valleys; and don't sit down in any all, unless there is an overhanging roof over your head or the porch or on the doorway.

A business meeting of the Press Association was held in the parlor of the Ashland House on Monday morning. The following members were present:

J. B. Clark, of the Georgetown Swiss Journal; James C. Clegg, of the association; G. E. Haddaway, Easton Ledger; F. A. Christian, Greenbush Free Press; T. S. Hodson, Christendom Leader; F. E. Bach, Wilmington Morning News; George W. Humphrey and J. B. Cheyne, Wilmington Evening Evening; Z. P. Steepe, Denison Democrat; B. S. Highley, Trapp Times; W. Scott Roberts, Centreville Record; D. H. C. Sitcher, The Wilmington; Wilson M. Tyler, Easton Gazette; James T. Woodall, Chestertown Transcript; W. B. Usilton, Chestertown Kent News; W. O. Gilmore, Elton Cecil Democrat; R. L. S. Bell, Baltimore Record; R. D. Hofferker, Smyrna Times; F. W. Reeve, formerly of Middletown New Era; See Way, Seer of the Smyrna Record; H. G. Knowles, of Smyrna; J. B. Landerborg, of the Dover State Sentinel, and C. W. Bentaine, of the Princess Anne Herald, arrived Monday afternoon.

The weather during the past month of August has, as a general thing, been a trifle cooler than the general run of August weather. The temperature from the 1st to the 27th, with but few exceptions, fluctuated daily between about 75 and 80 degrees. The weather was for the most part hot in the month—the 11th, 17th, 27th and 28th. The temperature on these days was 90 degrees except the 27th when it ran up to 92 degrees, being the hottest day of the month. The weather man's record shows that for several years back the number of times that the temperature went up above 90 degrees in August did not exceed three or four. The past month has been very dry, rain having fallen on six days.

The SABBATH BELLS.

The old man sits in his easy chair, and his ear has caught the ringing of many a church-bell far and near. The old swain sits low in his aged breast, and his heart's thoughts far are reaching to the Sabbath morn of his boyish days, and a mother's sacred teaching.

A few years later, and low! the bells a merrier strain were pealing,

And his heart's thoughts far were sealing, but the old man's eyes are dimming now,

As memory holds before him

The sad, sad picture of later years,

When the tide of grief rolled over him.

When the bells were tolling for loved ones gone;

For the wife, for the sons and daughters, who one by one, from his home went out,

And down into death's dark waters.

But the aged heart has still one joy,

Which his old life daily blesses,

And his eyes grow bright and his pulses

"Neath a grandpa's sweet caresses."

But the old man wakes from his reverie,

And the dear old face is smiling,

While the child with her serious eyes reads on.

The Sabbath hours begin,

As he sits, once more ye ring for him,

When the heavenly hand shall sever

The chord of life, and his freed soul flies

To dwell with his own forever.

—Ever the Saturday.

GETTING ADMITTED.—A young man dropped into the office of a Dakota lawyer and said: "What is a haboas corpus?" "It is a kind of writ for—" "That's all I want to know about it. It is a mandamus a writ too?" "Yes."

"Use pretty considerable of these writs in the law business, I reckon?" "Yes, there are a number of different kinds."

"What is the usual rate for making collections in the territory?" "We usually take about half."

"All right—thanks. You see I made up my mind this morning to become a lawyer, and wanted to get a point or two. I'm going over to get admitted to the bar before the court adjourns—I'll hang out my shingle in the morning!"—"Ezelline Bell."
